

Two Websites, One Powerful Mission

Help spread the word about Parity Registry and Parity Track to fight discriminatory practices against those seeking mental health and addiction treatment services.

Parityregistry.org

Parity Registry is a website where consumers can:

- Learn to file an appeal with their health plan.
- Send a complaint directly to state enforcement officials after being wrongfully denied coverage for mental health or addiction treatment services.
- Access step-by-step appeals guidance.
- Find a comprehensive listing of state and federal regulators who can help with an appeal.
- Review FAQs and other information to help advance an appeal.

Paritytrack.org

Parity Track is a website where journalists, consumers, and others can track legislative, regulatory, and legal parity activities in all 50 states and at the federal level to monitor implementation and best practices.

Let's get the word out! Visit www.thekennedyforum.org/paritypartnertoolkit to access promotional messaging for Parity Registry and Parity Track, downloadable image files for various social media channels, web banners, and more.